The hotel was born from the renovation of a XVI century old mill, which used water energy from the close Elsa River for grinding cereals.

Today, the old mill is an eco-hotel equipped with a turbine for the production of hydro-electric power and a heat exchange system from the Elsa River. The vast garden which extends over 5000 square meters welcomes various species of sedentary and migratory birds. The train station is just 5 minute walk .

The funicular lifting to Certaldo Alto (historic center) can be reached in just 10 min. walk.
